2022 Property Tax Statements To Be Mailed September 15

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (Sept. 7, 2022) – With the arrival of property tax season this month, the Hall County Tax Commissioner's Office is preparing to issue approximately 94,200 tax statements for real and personal property. The 2022 Hall County property tax statements will be mailed Sept. 15 with a due date of Nov. 15.

In a concerted effort to save the time and resources of citizens, the Hall County Tax Commissioner's Office offers five ways to "Save A Trip and Skip The Line" to pay your tax bill. Utilizing the Tax Office's enhanced website, making online payments at hallcountytax.org is the preferred method.

Online payment methods include E-Check ($1.50 flat fee) and debit/credit card (2.5% of amount plus $0.30 cents per transaction). Most major credit cards are accepted. PayPal Credit is also an option, which provides a 6-month interest free, same-as-cash option to pay your property tax bill. The PayPal Credit payment option is a line of credit and is interest-free for six months if paid in full.

Another option is payment by mail, using the return envelope provided with the statement, to P.O. Box 1579, Gainesville, GA 30503. If you prefer a phone call, dedicated clerks at the Tax Office's Call Center are ready to assist with credit and debit card payments at (770) 531-6950. Citizens may also use the safe and secure drive-up drop box located in the left lane of the main entrance to the Hall County Government Center (HCGC) at 2875 Browns Bridge Road.

For properties that changed ownership during the year, the official property owner on Jan. 1 of each year is responsible for that year's property tax. If property is purchased or sold after Jan. 1, it is the responsibility of the buyer and seller to determine who will pay the owed tax by the due date. You should refer to the closing documents or the closing attorney to determine tax liability for the current year.

For property owners with property tax escrow accounts, tax information is made available to mortgage companies; however, the property owner is still responsible for ensuring taxes are paid by the due date.

If you own property within the city limits of Gainesville, Flowery Branch, Buford, or Oakwood, you will receive a separate city tax bill from that municipality in addition to the Hall County property tax statement.

The Hall County Tax Commissioner's website (hallcountytax.org) will have up-to-date information on property tax payments on all parcels. The Tax Commissioner's Office bills and collects taxes. The Tax Assessor's Office determines property values. The Board of Commissioners, Board of Education, and cities set millage rates. One mill equals $1 of tax for every $1,000 of assessed value.

The Hall County Tax Commissioner's Office is typically open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; however, the office will be closed to the public on Mondays beginning Oct. 24 due to the ongoing replacement of the HCGC's heating, ventilation and air conditioning system. Representatives from the Hall County Tax Commissioner's Office will still be available by phone or email on Mondays and will also be available in a limited in-person capacity on Mondays just outside the Tax Commissioner's Office for payment drop offs, to provide general information and to answer general inquiries.

If there are any questions or an appointment is needed, please contact the Hall County Tax Commissioner's Office by phone at (770) 531-6950, or email propertytax@hallcounty.org or text at 1-833-602-8497
